

KRIM in Payson, AZ (a public radio station) has been taken over by the owners of KMOG (a commercial radio station) I believe this represents a conflict of interest (monopoly) on this small town, the radio sales people are the same for both public and commercial.